Founded in 1988, Bodegas Valdelacierva belongs to Hispanobodegas Group which owns wineries in the three most important Appellations in Spain: Rioja, Ribera del Duero and Rueda. Valdelacierva is located in the very same heart of the Rioja Alta (Navarrete) and it has 200 hectares of vineyards, which are divided into small plots with vines that are between 25 and 130 years old. The winery has a young and dynamic personality and it is focused on making wines where the soil and the Tempranillo variety are their indisputable protagonists.

Production:

Best grapes selected from plots of the same age. It is aged in American (70 %) and French (30 %) oak barrels where the wine stays for at least 24 months, achieving an harmonious development. Afterwards, the aging is completed staying for at least 12 months being rounded in the bottle before being sold.
